Announcement

(Norfolk, VA) –Join Norfolk Botanical Garden (NBG) and the Butterfly Society of Virginia for the 2014 first annual Butterfly Festival! Enjoy demonstrations, lectures, booths, activities and vendors and participate in fun activities for butterfly enthusiasts of all ages on Saturday, July 19, 2014 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Learn about the many aspects and issues of butterflies and how to attract them to your yard. Don't miss a special guest appearance at 1pm on the Baker Hall Terrace from the Virginia Opera as vocalists perform excerpts from Madame Butterfly.

Garden guests will also enjoy food vendors, music children's activities, including a butterfly parade, face painting, beanbag toss and several craft stations, along with special butterfly activities in the children's garden. Take a tram ride out to the Butterfly House so an up-close experience with butterflies and caterpillars. Don't be surprised if a butterfly lands on you. It's an experience you won't want to miss!

The Garden launched its summer exhibit Mission Monarch: Project Milkweed, sponsored by Capital Group Companies with activities supported by the Gary Fund, Hampton Roads Foundation and is open through September 21, 2014. The summer exhibit focuses on the life and issues of the monarch butterfly population. You can help monarch butterflies by planting one milkweed, the only food source for monarch caterpillars! The Butterfly Society of Virginia is bringing more than a-1800 milkweed plants to sell during the festival!

The Butterfly Festival is included with regular Garden admission and will take place in the Baker Hall Visitor Center and terrace. Fall in love with butterflies at Norfolk Botanical Garden!
