Norfolk Botanical Garden Celebrates Earth Day Learn, Discover and Explore!

Announcement

Bring the kids to Norfolk Botanical Garden (NBG) on Saturday, April 19, 2014 for an exciting Earth Day celebration for the entire family from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Enjoy activity stations in the WOW Children's Garden that will provide interactive opportunities to explore the outdoors and discover the important role we play in protecting the environment. The interaction will encourage hands-on exploration, cultivate artistic endeavors and inspire action to protect plants and wildlife. Guests will create unique pieces of art with Re-Imagined crafts. Create newspaper flower pots with herb or veggies seeds, play WOW Recycle games and participate in a WOW Community art project. Make a difference by learning how to protect the environment and have fun all at the same time!

About Norfolk Botanical Garden

Norfolk Botanical Garden represents an oasis of more than 40 themed gardens encompassing 155 beautiful acres. From stunning plant collections to WOW - World of Wonders: A Children's Adventure Garden, this diverse natural beauty can be explored by tram, boat, or walking tours. The Garden is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, is recognized as a Virginia Historic Landmark, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, a Virginia Green attraction, and is managed by the Norfolk Botanical Garden Society supported by the City of Norfolk. Norfolk Botanical Garden is dedicated to enriching life by promoting the enjoyment of plants and the environment through beautiful gardens and education programs. Admission is $11 for adults, $10 for seniors and military, $9 for ages 3-17, 2 and under are free. For more information, visit www.norfolkbotanicalgarden.org
