NEW Café, The Great Frame Up & Butterflies Visit

Announcement

(Norfolk, VA) –They're coming! Norfolk Botanical Garden (NBG) opens the doors of the Butterfly House on Friday, June 12, 2015. The enclosed structure provides an amazing opportunity for guests to observe and connect with butterflies up-close. Explore the different species that call Hampton Roads home and learn the habits and life cycles of each dazzling butterfly. Talk to experts on how you can attract butterflies in your own yard. The Butterfly House is open from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. daily.

While you are here, take your best shot with the Great Frame Up. Join Norfolk Botanical Garden (NBG) as we launch The Great Frame Up on June 16, 2015. Look for 23 frames placed throughout the NBG landscape. Take a selfie, a group photo or a beauty Garden shot Framed Up. Share your masterpiece with the rest of the world by using the hashtag #NorfolkBlooms on your favorite social media sites. Tagged photos will appear at the Chrysler Museum of Art as part of the exhibition The Artist's Garden: American Impressionism and the Garden Movement, 1887–1920.

LOCAL FAVORITES ARE TAKING OVER THE CAFÉ!

Toast, Handsome Biscuit and Field Guide owners and local favorites David Hausmann and John Porter are taking over the Café later this month! This dynamic duo is bringing their cool vibe and delicious Garden inspired food to NBG. Soon you will enjoy a nice bistro-style lunch in the most beautiful setting in Hampton Roads.
