Norfolk, VA (February, 19, 2009) - All Brides-to-Be are invited as guests to A Bridal Open House on Sunday, March 1, 2009 from 11AM – 3PM, compliments of Norfolk Botanical Garden (NBG).

NBG's Rose Garden Hall will be transformed into an intimate boutique bridal event. Vendors representing the best-of-the-best planners, photographers, caterers, florists, bakers, musicians and wedding rentals will display their goods and services.

Brides-to-Be will travel by tram to the Garden's various ceremony sites. Chairs will be in place for brides to visualize how it could look on their wedding day.

to give away a FREE wedding ceremony site.

There will be live music, bouquets, decorated cakes and tastings. Caterers will be serving food samples, tables will be dressed in their finest linens and live centerpieces. Photographers will display their talent while a DJ plays the music brides want to hear. A Horse and Carriage and an elegant limo will be on site to provide transportation possibilities for the big day.

Brides-to-be can gather wedding ideas from start to finish and speak with vendors at the Bridal Open House at Norfolk Botanical Garden.
