

Backyard Bird BINGO

Become an ornithologist (someone who studies birds) by looking and listening for different kinds of birds and different bird behaviors in your backyard.

B	I	N	G	O
Walking or hopping on the ground	Blue Jay	Singing or calling	Flying with a worm/ insect in its mouth	Sitting in a nest
A flock of birds flying or standing together	Bathing in water	Mourning Dove	Eating from a bird feeder	Crow
Canada Goose	Perching on a limb or branch	FREE SPACE	Robin	Preening (combing) feathers
Feeding/ searching for food	Group sitting on a telephone wire	Black Bird	Soaring (wings not beating)	Flying with gathered twigs, grass, etc.
Cardinal	Flying (wings beating)	Standing on the ground	A bird chasing another bird	Mockingbird